

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF GEORGIA

A PROCLAMATION

PUBLIC WORKS WEEK

WHEREAS: Public works infrastructure, facilities, and services are of vital importance to the health, safety, and well-being of the citizens of Georgia; and

WHEREAS: These facilities and services would not be available without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals, engineers, and administrators, representing state and local units of government who are responsible for transportation, water supply, sewage, refuse disposal systems, public buildings, and other structures and facilities essential to serving our citizens; and

WHEREAS: It is in the public interest for the citizens and civic leaders of this state to maintain a progressive interest in the public works needs and programs of their respective communities; and

WHEREAS: This year marks the 56th annual Public Works Week. I urge all our citizens to join with representatives of governmental agencies and the American Public Works Association in activities and ceremonies designed to honor our public works professionals, engineers, and administrators, and to recognize the substantial contributions they have made to our national health and welfare; now

THEREFORE: I, NATHAN DEAL, Governor of the State of Georgia, do hereby proclaim May 15–21, 2016, as PUBLIC WORKS WEEK in Georgia.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Executive Department to be affixed this 24th day of February in the year of our Lord two thousand sixteen.
